

Making Their Own Super Bowl Field

Allen Michael Borasky and Alaina Hubbell are students at Discovery Day Care in Phoenix. They made their own Super Bowl playing field. They used their creative thinking skills and taped color paper together, marked the yardage on the field, made field goal posts out of popsicle sticks and then used game pieces from other games to have players on the field.

