

Working Together to Make Bird Feeders

Alaina Hubbell, a School Age student at Discovery Day Care in Phoenix, is helping Maya Cooley (Preschool Student) make a homemade bird feeder. The girls had unbaked biscuits that they made donut shape and then spread the bird seed on the biscuit. The biscuit is then cooked and cooled. Later they were able to bring them outside and hand on a tree branch for the birds to eat.

