

Riding Bikes

Brayden Knapp a Toddler at Discovery Learning Center is using his large motor skills and coordination while riding a bike at the Center. The children are able to use their large motor skills to ride bikes and play on the enclosed Toddler playground.

