

Dinah Olson, MPAS, PA-C joined OCO Reproductive Health in June 2017. She received her bachelor's degree from Drake University and Master of Physician Assistant Studies from University of Iowa. She has over 20 years' of experience and previously provided care in Family Practice and GYN oncology. Ms. Olson maintains active memberships in the American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA) and the American Society for Colposcopy and Cervical Pathology (ASCCP). She has advanced training in long-acting reversible contraceptives (LARCs) as well as colposcopy.

Currently Ms. Olson provides services at OCO's Center for Reproductive Health in Oswego and on the SUNY Oswego campus.